EDUCATIONAL OBJECTIVES

1. Write arguments to support claims in an analysis of substantive topics or texts, using valid reasoning and relevant and sufficient evidence.
2. Write informative/explanatory texts to examine and convey complex ideas and information clearly and accurately through the effective selection, organization, and analysis of content.
3. Write narratives to develop real or imagined experiences or events using effective techniques, well-chosen details, and well-structured event sequences.
4. Develop personal, cultural, textual, and thematic connections within and across genres through written responses to texts and personal experiences.

LOGISTICS/EQUIPMENT

- Each program is custom-designed and determined based on the environment/classroom available.

POST-PROGRAM ACTIVITIES & RESOURCES

All participants can continue their writing experience at the Just Buffalo Writing Center, a creative space where young writers ages 12-18 are welcomed after school for free writing workshops, literary events, and individualized assistance with writing projects.
